Wife's shoe box yields surprising find

A man and woman had been married for more than 60 years. They shared everything. They talked about everything. They kept no secrets from each other except that the little old woman had a shoe box in the top of her
closet that she had cautioned
her husband never to open or ask her about.

For all of these years, he had never thought about the box, but one day the little old woman got very sick and the doctor said she would not recover.

In trying to sort out their affairs, the little old man took down the shoebox and took it to his wife's bedside. She agreed that it was time that he should know what was in the box. When he opened it, he found two knitted dolls and
a stack of money totaling

$95,000.

He asked her about the contents. "When we were to be married," she said, "my grandmother told me the secret of a happy marriage was to never argue. She told me that if I ever got angry with you, I should just keep quiet
and knit a doll."

The little old man was so moved; he had to fight back tears. Only two precious dolls were in the box. She had only been angry with him two times in all those years of living and loving. He almost burst with happiness.

"Honey," he said, "that explains the doll, but what about all of this money? Where did it come from?"

"Oh," she said, "that's the money I made from selling all those dolls."

Making the grade...A professor stood before his class of senior biology students, about to hand out the final exam.

"I want to say that it's been a pleasure teaching you this semester. I know you've all worked hard and many of you are off to medical school. I don't want anyone to get their GPA messed up because they might have been celebrating a bit too much this week, so anyone who would like to opt out of the final exam now will receive a B for the course."

Naturally, there was much rejoicing in the class as students got up, walked to the front of the class and took the professor up on his offer.

As the last taker left the room, the professor looked out over the handful of remaining students and asked, "Anyone else? This is your last chance." One final student rose up and opted out of the final. The professor closed the door and took attendance of those students remaining. "I'm glad to see you believe in yourself," he said. "You all get an A."

Practical advice for keeping weight down

Seems like a lot of folks are having trouble keeping their weight down these days. If you're one of them, do we have some advice for you!

If no one sees you eat it, it has no calories.

If you drink a diet soda with a candy bar, they will cancel each other out.

Food taken for medicinal purposes does not count. This includes chocolate, brandy, toast, and Sara Lee chocolate cake.

If you fatten up everyone around you, you'll look thinner.

Joe was a single guy, living at home with his father and working in the family business.

When he found out he was going to inherit a fortune when his sick father died, he decided he needed a wife with whom to share his fortune.

One evening at an investment seminar he spotted the most beautiful woman he had ever seen. Her beauty took his breath away.

"I may look like just an ordinary man," he said to her, "but in just a few years, my father will pass, and I'll inherit his large fortune."

Impressed, the woman took his business card. Three months later, she became Joe's stepmother.

Women are so much better at estate planning than men.

Spy Test... A college graduate applied for a job as an industrial spy. Together with several other applicants, he was given a sealed envelope and told to take it to the fourth floor.

As soon as the young man was alone, he stepped into an empty hallway and opened the packet. Inside, a message read: "You're our kind of person. Report to the fifth floor."

A retired man who volunteers to entertain patients in nursing homes and hospitals went to one local hospital in Brooklyn and took his keyboard along. He told some jokes and sang some funny songs at patients' bedsides. When he finished he said, in farewell, "I hope you get better." One elderly gentleman replied, "I hope you get better, too."

Pieces of cookies contain no calories. The process of breaking causes calorie leakage.

Late-night snacks have no calories. The refrigerator light is not strong enough for the calories to see their way into the calorie counter.

You should all remember science class from school. A calorie is a unit of heat; therefore, cold foods have no calories.

Ice cream is frozen and is an excellent diet food. It results in negative calories.

A new hair salon opened up for business right across the street from the old established hair cutters' place. They put up a big bold sign which read:

"WE GIVE SEVEN-DOLLAR HAIR CUTS!"

Not to be outdone, the old master barber put up his own sign:

"WE FIX SEVEN-DOLLAR HAIR CUTS"

New soldier has to pick his target carefully

A new soldier was on sentry duty at the main gate. His orders were clear. No vehicle was to enter unless it had the proper sticker on the windshield.

Now, a huge Army car came up with a general seated in the back. The sentry yelled, "Halt, who goes there?"

The chauffeur, says, "General Wheeler."

"I'm sorry, I can't let you through. You've got to have a sticker on the windshield."

The general said, "Drive on!"

The sentry said, "Hold it! You really can't come through. I have orders to shoot if you try driving on without your sticker."

The general repeated, "I'm telling you, corporal, drive on!"

The sentry walked up to the rear window with the gun at the ready and said, "General, I'm new at this. Do I shoot you or the driver?"

One beautiful Sunday morning, a minister announced to his congregation:

"My good people, I have here in my hands three sermons: a $100 sermon that lasts five minutes; a $50 sermon that lasts 15 minutes; and a $10 sermon that lasts a full hour.

"Now, we'll take the collection and see which one I'll deliver."
